The Insider's Guide to the Teacher Interview gives aspiring teachers a powerful "edge" in the teacher interview process. Drawing from their years of experience hiring teachers, authors, Bill and Mike lift the veil of secrecy and tell you exactly what it takes to land the teaching job of your dreams. This groundbreaking insider perspective delivers an affirming approach to getting an interview, writing cover letters and resumes, researching schools, and maximizing teaching portfolios. The guide is a unique resource offering a glimpse at what few candidates ever get to see: authentic documents being used by administrators across the nation to hire including resume screening tools, interview rubrics, written tasks, teaching demonstration scenarios, and much, much, more. Add to this their innovative Umbrella Approach™ to comfortably mastering any and all teaching interview questions, and these two educational insiders will quickly have you prepared to navigate anything that you encounter.

Enjoy beloved classics while developing vocabulary, reading, and critical thinking skills! Each literature book in the series is a one-year course Each chapter has five lessons with daily concept-building exercises, warm-up questions, and guided readings Easy-to-use with suggested reading schedules and daily calendar Equips students to think critically about philosophy and trends in culture, and articulate their views through writing A well-crafted presentation of whole-book or whole-work selections from the major genres of classic literature (prose, poetry, and drama), each course has 34 chapters representing 34 weeks of study, with an overview of narrative background material on the writers, their historical settings, and worldview. The rich curriculum's content is infused with critical thinking skills, and an easy-to-use teacher's guide outlines student objectives with each chapter, providing the answers to the assignments and weekly exercises. The final lesson of the week includes both the exam, covering insights on the week's chapter, as well as essays developed through the course of that week's study, chosen by the educator and student to personalize the coursework for the individual learner.
