English are often used interchangeably,

Chinese use the “ Subject-Verb-Object ” system. However, in Chinese we usually put the place in the middle of the sentence while English puts it towards the end.

Also, in English, using a pronoun as a subject or object can change the spelling.

For example, “ I ”

6 Major Differences between English and Chinese

The Chinese
language is vastly different from English, which is one reason why English speakers have a hard time learning it.

Chinese has a different writing system. It has a different sound and pronunciation style. It also has different grammar.
