Answer The statement is true iff, for any  $x_1, x_2 \in \mathbb{R}^n$ ,  $t \in [0, 1]$ , it is true that  $f(tx_1 + (1-t)x_2) = tf(x_1) + (1-t)f(x_2)$ .

Substituting any linear equation in this statement gives  $f(tx_1 + (1-t)x_2) = a[tx_1 + (1-t)x_2] + b = tax_1 + (1-t)ax_2 + tb + (1-t)b = tf(x_1) + (1-t)f(x_2)$  for all and results, providing examples that show how to apply theory to practice. This textbook offers an introduction to advanced microeconomic theory that emphasizes the intuition behind mathematical assumptions, providing step-by-step examples that show how to apply theoretical models. It covers standard topics such as preference relations, demand theory and applications, producer theory, choice under uncertainty, partial and general equilibrium, monopoly, game theory and imperfect competition, externalities and public goods, and contract theory;

but its intuitive and application-oriented approach provides students with a bridge to more technical topics. The book can be used by advanced undergraduates as well as Masters students in economics, finance, and public policy, and by PhD students in programs with an applied focus. The text connects each topic with recent findings in behavioral and experimental economics, and discusses these results in context, within the appropriate chapter. Step-by-step examples appear immediately after the main theoretical findings, and end-of chapter
