Hush Hush is a fast paced chilling police procedural that mixes with a gripping crime thriller. I literally couldn't put down! This is the first book in a new series and wow did it go off with a bang! I can't say anything about the plot for risk of giving anything away, the blurb says plenty.

Hush Hush (DS Grace Allendale, #1) by Mel Sherratt

Original review from Little Book Owl Hush, Hush is a humorous and mysterious read. I really loved these two aspects of the story the most, and Becca Fitzpatrick managed to make the two work well together. Out of the cast of characters, I wouldn't say that Nora was my favourite to be completely honest.

Hush, Hush is horrendous to read. Sex workers are shamed and criticised; drugs are abused to cope with sexual situations that border sexual assault, with the acts glamourised to somehow excuse everyone's behaviours; everyone's emotions are belittled over and over; constant lies and secrets infiltrate every scenario because the characters are too chi
