The story is about Alice, a Parisian inspector, who wakes up on a park bench in Central Park, next to a stranger, who introduces himself as Gabriel. Their briefcases and phones are gone and they are tied to each other with handcuffs. After the first moments of shock, they realise that they are no longer in Europe but in New York.

Interview with Guillaume Musso about Central Park, April 2014 Though your novels regularly feature chance encounters, the one in Central Park is without a doubt one of the most unusual. Where did you get the idea? I've had this idea of a man and a woman who don't know each other waking up handcuffed side by side in my head for a long time.

Long story short: that's how I found the book "Central Park" written by Guillaume Musso. The plot seemed interesting: Alice Schafer, a French detective, finds herself chained to Gabriel Keyne, a jazz pianist from Dublin. They wake up in Central Park, but they don't know each other nor do they know why they are in New York or how they got there. To be honest: I didn't really have high ...
