MZ This is a late model of the very successful two strokes made by MZ in Germany. While its heritage can be traced back to the DKWs of 1930's, the 251 benefits from advances such as a 5 speed box, disc brake, separate oil tank and a separate oil pump, also powerful 12 volt electrics. The previous owners obviously spent time and money on it.

Here we have this 1993 MZ Saxon ETZ 251 tour which has covered 19303 miles from new. The bike as shown is all complete and for a bike that has been off the road for so long it has weathered well. The paint work is all complete but there is some fading on the paint work. The rear tyre is ok but the front has got a puncture. The bike is a good project bike but we have not got it running as the ...
